WMF Gourmet Moments

Let the plates chatter - you've got guests coming for dinner soon. So get everything ready and sit down! Take a moment for yourself and admire your beautifully laid table. Scatter a few fresh sprigs and light the candles! Now sit back and relax, taste and enjoy.

Set the table, dish up.
Your appetite is not as minimalist as your taste.

No frills, just clean lines – that is how to style a modern table. Lay your table with simple designer pieces! Cutlery, candle holders, napkin rings and little bowls create a simple and elegant look.

JETTE

Dress your table up beautifully: Jette is a cutlery range from designer Jette Joop. The basic shape is classic, while the length and proportions are modern. The sculpted bevelling at the end of the handles is reminiscent of the cut of a precious stone.

Stratic

Striking and dynamic - Stratic comes from the Porsche Design Studio and is the most masculine and purist of our cutlery ranges. Stratic is pared down to the absolute essentials. The proportions are modern. Rectangular surfaces and gently rounded edges give a well-balanced look. The little curves at the end of the handles accentuate the striking look.

Michalsky Tableware

A new look for old designs! The spirit of traditional WMF from the past transformed with new styling: that's the idea of the Michalsky table collection. Designer Michael Michalsky has worked with classics from the WMF archives to produce modern, self-confident cutlery which, when combined with the timeless plates with their delicate, decorative black lines and the stylish glasses, gives your table a wonderful new look. Add a couple of candle holders. And the champagne cooler right in the middle of the table.

Hard-wearing: Cromargan protect®

Dust off your good cutlery! You don't need to save it for best – Cutlery made from Cromargan protect® looks almost as good as new after years, no matter how often you drop it or leave it in the washing up bowl or simply use it at the table.

More than 80 years ago, WMF largely replaced the heavy table silver used back then with stainless steel. This innovative material, which still has everything you would expect from a contemporary cutlery, was launched by WMF in 1927 under the now world-famous name of Cromargan®, ushering in a new chapter of cooking and dining. From this point on, the good cutlery was up to the challenges of everyday life.

In spring 2009, WMF went one better and refined Cromargan®. This advanced material is known as Cromargan protect® and demonstrates a much improved scratch-resistance compared to untreated cutlery. It keeps its shape, is scratch-proof and acid-resistant, rust-free and dishwasher safe. Technically, this process is an additional thermochemical treatment process which has been patented and internationally protected for use on WMF cutlery.

But most importantly, cutlery made of Cromargan protect® always looks its best. Polished surfaces never lose their shine, matt surfaces stay matt. A shimmering innovation from WMF which is designed for your everyday life.

Quality on the table.

Resistance

Cutlery made of internationally patented Cromargan protect® has an extremely robust surface: polished surfaces remain polished, matt finishes remain matt.

Sharpness

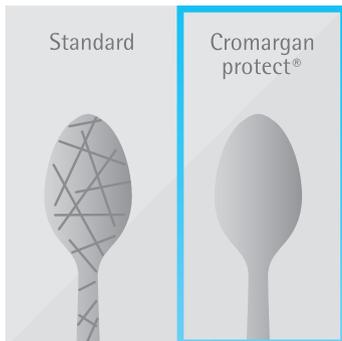

The quality forged blades made of special blade steel keeps the knives sharp for even after extensive use.

Dishwasher safety

Intensive use and frequent cleaning in the dishwasher cannot harm Cromargan protect®. This means the cutlery stays rust-free for a long time.

Design

Perfectly-styled designer cutlery not only looks good, but also sits perfect in your hand.

Evoque

Straightforward, tough, elegant. The straight lines of the design brook no distraction. The smooth transition from the handle to the front part of the cutlery lends it a particular charm.

Premiere

Premiere is a cutlery with a long tradition. The simple design goes back to the Biedermeier period. The delicate leaf motif at the end of the handle is masterfully crafted and is repeated on the back.

Vision

Slender and delicate, solid yet sculptured. It is our very own version of a very good thing. The Vision cutlery also sits well in your hand. Another feature is that the knife can be laid down flat or with the blade upright.

The cutlery combines modern shapes with traditional style. This harmonious blend means it can be combined in a variety of ways. It fits in just as well with a rustic country house or a modern setting, without compromising on individuality.

Ambiente

Ambiente combines contrasting features. Thus the handle is broad and flat at the end, whereas at the neck it has delicate and fine curves. The transition to the front part is stylishly moulded. This fine decorative element makes the cutlery unmistakable.

Arrange, adorn, present. It's time to dress the table.

Setting the right cutlery for every course is easy. To keep everything organised, there are a couple of basic rules to laying the table: leave enough space between place settings to give all your guests space to move. Then, set out the cutlery in the reverse order to when it will be used, so start with the main course in the middle and move out towards the starter on the outside. The space above the plate is reserved for dessert cutlery. Decorate however you want – and you're done!

Corvo

You can twist and turn the Corvo knife any way you choose – it cuts a fine figure from any angle. Resting on the blade, the knife grip visually matches the fork and spoon. If you lay the knife sideways, its handle stands slightly upright. This cutlery's trademark is a slender shape that sits well in the hand and the silky matt finish.

Silk

Cutlery like velvet and silk. Silk lives up to its name. Soft shapes, flowing transitions and balanced proportions give it a pleasant tactile quality. The knife blade follows the curve of the handle and leads it to a harmonious finish. The silky matt finish rounds off the overall impression.

works by A.A. Milne and E.H. Shepard.

Nearly everybody knows him, and everybody who knows him loves him: Winnie the Pooh, the friendly bear from Hundred Acre Wood. He is always on the lookout for honey, and his best friends help him find it. Winnie the Pooh brightens up the day, creating a mood of calm at the breakfast table while the children eat their boiled eggs. Very young children might need a little extra help eating: the feeding spoon is perfectly sized for baby food jars.
